Purposeful Peer Support
Aotearoa (PPSA) is a framework for co-creating a purposeful journey toward wellbeing. Each person's journey will be unique and self-determined facilitated within a collaborative peer relationship and guided by PPSA principles.

Together we will practice the relational skills that keep us connected and learning to develop and sustain the meaningful relationships that will enable and support our wellbeing – enduring relationships that will help us to move through the different stages or 'seasons' of our wellbeing journey.

We begin our journey by meeting a survivor in their "winter", responding with warmth and planning together for what might be possible. We identify strengths and personal resources, cultivating and growing these to sustain us through the tough times.

With the harvest gathered in, we take time to pause and reflect, ready to start the cycle afresh and plan for new growth.

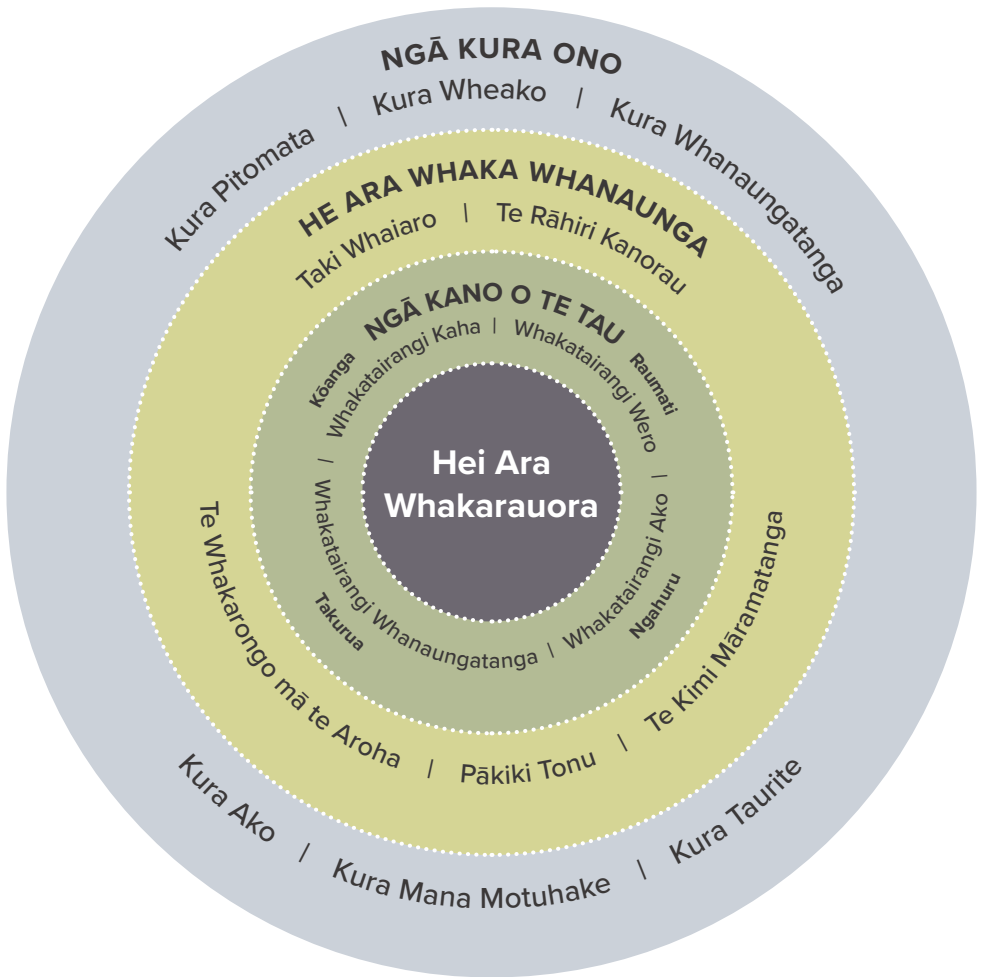

Ko Te Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā o Aotearoa (PPSA) tētahi anga waihanga tahi i te hīkoi whai whakaaro ki te whaiora. He motuhake, he mana motuhake hoki te hīkoi o tēnā, o tēnā o ngā tāngata, ka hāpaitia kei ngā honohononga aropā mahitahi, ā, ka arahina e ngā mātāpono o PPSA.

Ka whakaharatau tahi tātou i ngā pūkenga whakawhanaunga kia tūturu ngā hononga i waenga i a tātou, ā, ka ako ki te whakawhanake me te whakatūturu i ngā hononga hei whakaāhei, hei tautoko hoki i tō tātou whaiora – he hononga tūturu e āwhina ana i a tātou ki te neke ki ia wāhanga, ‘kaupeka’ rānei o te hīkoi whaiora.

Ka tīmata tō tātou hīkoi i te ara i te tūtaki ki tētahi mōrehu kei tōna “hōtoke”, ka whakahoki i te mahana, ka whakamahere tahi i ngā rautaki e taea ai te whakatutuki. Ka tautohu tātou i ngā pūkenga me te kaha whaiaro, ā, ka ngakia, ka whakatipuria ēnei ki te toko i te ora i ngā wā taumaha.

Ka kohia te hauhake, ka whai wā tātou ki te noho noa ki te whai whakaaro, kia rite ki te tīmata i te hurihanga hou, ki te whakamahere i te tipu anō.

Six Principles Ngā Kura Ono

These six principles guide the peer-to-peer relationships that support each person's unique journey.

We value what we've learned through our life experiences. We are full of potential, which we can realise when we have a sense of meaning and purpose in our lives.

Purposeful Peer Support Aotearoa lets us practise relating to others. Through shared experiences we find new understandings, so we each can grow and learn, separately and together. When we welcome and respect what each person brings, we create a world in which we can all flourish.

Mā ēnei mātāpono e ono e ārahi ngā hononga arōpā-ki-te-arōpā e taunaki ana i te ara motuhake mō ia tangata.

E kaingākau ana tātou i ā tātou akoranga mai i ngā wheako. Kua kī tātou i te pitomata, ka taea ai te whakatinana, ina mārāma ai tātou ki te take me te aronga o ō tātou oranga.

Mā Te Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā o Aotearoa tātou e whakaharatau i te whakawhanaungatanga. Mā te tuari i ngā wheako e whakapiki tātou i te mārāmatanga, kia tipu ai, kia ako ai tātou, takitahi, takitini hoki. Ki te whakamihi tātou, ki te whakaute hoki i ngā koha mai i ia tangata, ka waihangā tātou i te ao ka taea e tātou katoa te whakapuāwai.

Five Relationship Skills

E Rima Ngā Pūkenga Whakawhanaunga

Achieving the intentions of Purposeful Peer Support Aotearoa means practising relational skills that keep us connected and learning.

As peer workers:

- We practice developing our self-awareness and learning to appreciate difference and diversity.
- We practice reflective listening skills and developing courage in working with trauma, whether it's our own or someone else's.
- We practice remaining curious by encouraging ourselves to be genuinely interested in each other's experiences.

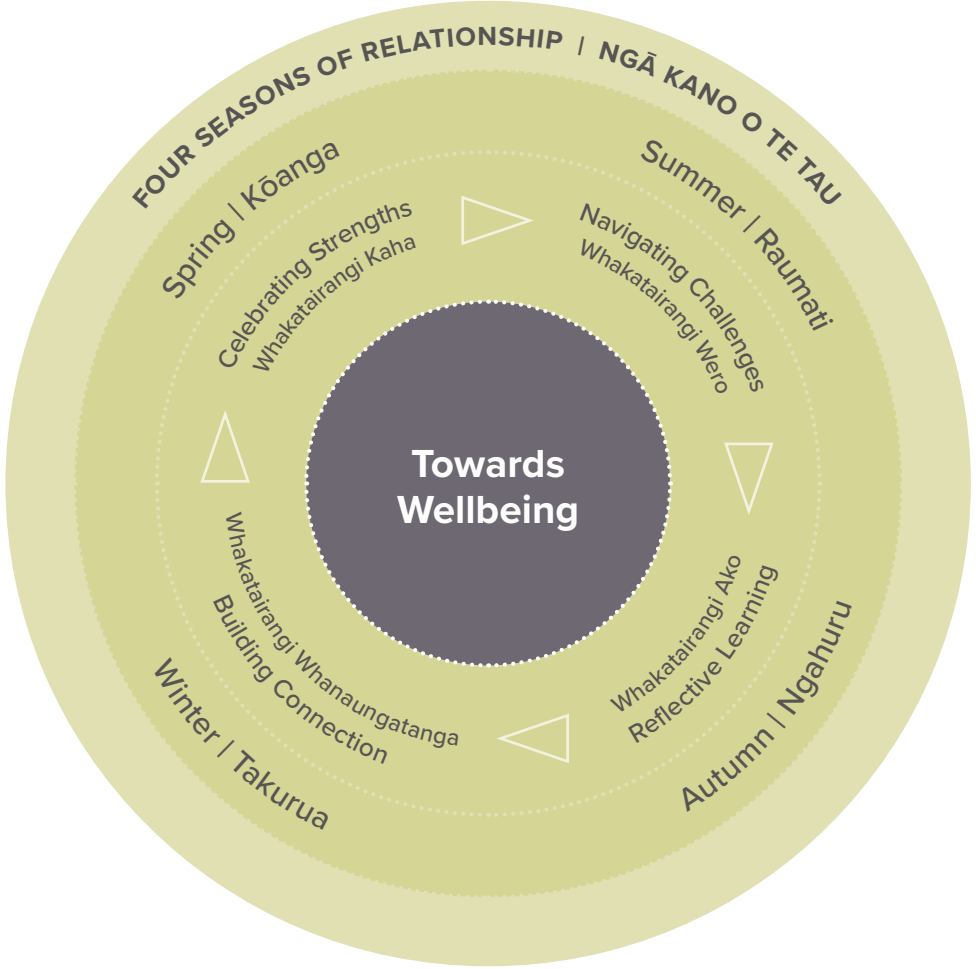

Te whakatutuki i ngā aronga o Te Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā o Aotearoa, me whakaharatau tātou i ngā pūkenga whakawhanaungatanga e honohono tonu ai, e ako tonu ai tātou. He kaimahi aropā:

- Ka whakaharatau tātou i te whakawanake i te tūoho whaiaro me te ako kia rata ki te whanokē me te kanorau.
- Ka whakaharatau tātou i ngā pūkenga whakarongo me te whakaata, ki te whakawhanake hoki i te māia ki te mahi me te pāmamae, ahakoa tō tātou, tō tētahi atu tangata rānei.
- Ka whakaharatau tātou i te māhirahira pūmau mā te whakahau i a tātou anō kia pono te hiahia ki te rongo i ngā wheako i waenganui i a tātou.

Four Seasons Relationship Model

Te Taura o ngā Kaupeka e

Whā o te Whakawhanaunga

The four seasons model is a metaphor to illustrate the process of building and growing Purposeful Peer Support Aotearoa relationships.

As part of our commitment to partnership with tangata whenua, we have aligned this metaphor with the lunar calendar (Maramataka) which was introduced by the Pacific voyagers to Aotearoa and then adapted over time by Māori to align with local conditions and seasons.

We understand that relationships can move through different stages or “seasons”; our Purposeful Peer Support Aotearoa relationship does too.

We begin by meeting a survivor in their “winter”, responding with warmth, and planning together for what might be possible from here. We identify existing strengths and personal resources, to grow and develop for the future.

Over time we may become discouraged or tired; to sustain our-selves through the tough times we are able to draw on the strengths we have cultivated.

With the harvest gathered in, we take time to pause and reflect, ready to start the cycle afresh and plan for new growth.

He huahuatau te tauira e whā ngā kaupeka ka whakaahua i te tukanga ki te hanga, ki te whakawhanake hoki i ngā honohononga o te Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā o Aotearoa.

Ko tētahi wāhanga o tō mātou ū ki te mahitahi me tangata whenua, kua whakahāngai tēnei huatau ki te maramataka, i kawea mai nei i Hawaiki ki Aotearoa, ā, kua whakahāngaitia hoki e ngāi Māori ki ngā āhuetanga me ngā kaupeka o te tau o konei. E mārama ana mātou, ka huri haere ngā hononga whakawhanaungatanga i ngā wāhanga, “kaupeka” rānei; ka pērā hoki tō mātou whakawhanaungatanga o Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā o Aotearoa.

Ka tīmata tātou ki te hui tahi me tētahi mōrehu kei tōna “hōtoke”, ka whakahoki i te mahana, ka whakamahere tahi i ngā rautaki e taea ai te whakatutuki i konei. Ka tautohu tātou i ngā pūkenga me te kaha whaiaro tūturu, hei whakatipu, hei whakawhanake mō ā mua.

Mā te wā pea, ka hākerekere, ka ngenge rānei tātou; ki te whakatūturu i a tātou i ngā wā taumaha, ka whakawhirinaki tātou i ngā pūkenga kua whakawhanaketia e tātou.

Ā, ka kohia te hauhake, ka whai wā tātou ki te noho noa ki te whai whakaaro, kia rite ki te tīmata i te hurihanga hou, ki te whakamahere i te tipu anō.

Our Wellbeing Framework

Tō Mātou Anga Whaiora

The five interconnected pillars of our wellbeing framework reflect a synthesis of two Māori models of health, three well known international wellbeing/ wellness models¹ and align with the NZ Mental Health foundation's 'five ways to wellbeing'. The integration of these models affirms our holistic focus on the spiritual, social, mental/emotional, occupational, and situational (physical) aspects of wellbeing.

Towards wellbeing, the focus of Purposeful Peer Support, requires our individual one-on-one and group peer support work to have a considered emphasis on encouraging meaningful wellbeing outcomes for survivors.

We sustain a wellbeing focus by helping survivors to create wellbeing plans that reflect their individual focus on working towards outcomes that enable and support their recovery journey.

“Wellbeing is when people are able to lead fulfilling lives with purpose, balance and meaning to them.”

— NZ GOVERNMENT WELLBEING BUDGET 2019

E whakaata ana ngā pou e rima o tō mātou anga whaiora i te hanumitanga o ngā taurira hauora Māori e rua, ngā taurira whaiora/oranga o tāwāhi e toru¹, ā, ka hāngai tonu ki te kaupapa ‘five ways to wellbeing’ a te NZ Mental Health foundation. Mā te whakakotahi o ēnei taurira, e ū ai mātou ki te arotahi kotahi ki te taha wairua, te taha hinengaro, te taha whānau me te taha tinana o te whaiora.

Kia eke ai ki te whaiora, me ū te arotahi o ngā mahi takirua, mahi rōpū taunaki aropā o Te Whakaoranga mā te Taunaki Aropā ki te whakawhanake i ngā otinga whaiora whaitake mō ngā mōrehu.

Ka ū mātou ki te arotahi ki te whaiora, mā te āwhina i ngā mōrehu ki te waihanga i ngā mahere whaiora e whakaata ana i ō rātou ake arotahi ki te hīkoi whakamua ki ngā whāinga e āhei ai, e taunaki hoki i te whakarauora.

“Ka hua mai te whaiora, ina ka āhei te tangata kia whai i ngā mea nunui i ō rātou rā i te ao nei, kia tūtika, kia whai kiko te noho.”
